HOW TO ENTER

Pictured left is Vic Eastwood in mid flight! By using your skill and judgement put a cross in ink or ballpoint pen at the exact spot where you estimate the rear wheel of the bike landed. Each entry will be examined carefully and the winning entry will be that, which, in the judge's opinion, the centre of the cross most accurately represents the exact position the rear wheel first touched the ground. The FREEPOST address means you don't have to buy a stamp. DO make sure you use the exact address given so your entry doesn't go astray. (FREEPOST applies to UK mainland only).
